

What's REALLY Going on these Churches – May Scare the Hell Out of YOU!

Here's an Equation for you... It may just set you free!

With so many quotes, phrases, and craftily articulated words floating around on the cyber-highway these days you might want to carefully examine the following...

(Now may I mind you that I didn't have anyone to teach me any lessons on the information I am about to share and seriously doubt there be anyone to disprove it as well. I share out of love and compassion as I would like done unto me by what people call "The Golden Rule" but please note that I am not making it my personal obligation to do your homework for you especially when everyone has had or are having the same opportunity to do as myself. So If you want references to defend or oppose what I speak... great for you that you're already in front of your best modern day resource... the INTERNET search engine)

One of Jesus primary missions while walking the earth was to free the people from the Roman Government Domination... How many of you know what the Roman Government Domination actually was and how they managed to dominate the people by manipulation?

Manipulation (Definition)

- 1. to manage or influence skillfully, especially in an unfair manner*
- 2. to manipulate people's feelings; to handle, manage, or use, especially with skill, in some process of treatment or performance:
to manipulate a large tractor.*
- 3. to adapt or change (accounts, figures, etc.) to suit one's purpose or advantage.*

Free Will – God gave us all free will and that is something that is established. In knowing this we know that to deny it from another person is in no way of God or even remotely related. Yet the Romans however had successfully managed a way to marry the two into agreement with one another by means of Sorcery/Witchcraft.

Now this is the part when many will render this entire document as a useless waste of time to continue reading or even reading more into. That's when I would silently ask myself "why does it seem to be such an off-the-table topic of discussion especially in the church-houses of today" especially when I know that I've read in sound doctrine that the Lord would like for me to be knowledgeable of all things that I may not be deceived. I can easily answer that by simply suggesting that the very fact that it is the "forbidden topic” is all the more reason to make it my “Main Topic” and if there’s a shift in the atmosphere in my doing so... could very well be that what you are experiencing is that very same Roman Domination in which Jesus came to set the captives free from. As there are many so-called believers that go as far as saying that “ I don’t believe in such” because I am a Christian... Well that pretty much I like saying that you don’t even believe in the bible because the bible speaks of it all throughout the book.

Now... there is this thing called Repentance which is absolutely essential for believers... so I ask is there any reason for this to be strongly required of others by their leader but the leader himself/herself are exempt? ABSOLUTELY NOT!

Are Things adding up correctly? Concerned at all? Can you really afford to gamble on the subject?

Next I am going to share with you a rough draft of a time-line of my most recent return into the Church in which was established as the “Home Church” for my family. After being called into the presence of Lord at 2:15am the morning of my attendance there after being absent for quite some time for reasons that will be made obvious to those who truly have eyes to see and ears to hear along with a love for the Truth in Christ Jesus!

When the Spirit of the Lord spoke to me saying “Stay in me as I in you from now (this 2 o’clock hour in the am until sunrise) and I am going to set you free of that situation!” It was apparent that it was absolutely essential in order to not be overtaken by the enchantment that was taking place in that atmosphere... Oh little did I know the magnitude of what awaited!

“Sunday’s Enchanted Services Time line of Events” (please excuse any errors as there was too much information to include but too little time to perfect the order in writing but I trust that you can get the visual)

When and What was the keyword that triggered the silent alarm? Even more so... What triggered the “RED ALERT” ALL SYSTEMS ON GUARD ... Emergency High-Level Alarm! (you know the one that caused all the bells and whistles and disoriented sequences of events)

Example: When and what made dude-man think standing in agreement had turned into disagreement because it actually didn’t. To place things together if their focus hadn’t been manipulated... in a lesson where one man is on the topic of truth and he states that he has only been given a portion... (surely God didn’t equip his people with a fraction to work with) notice while still in perfect agreement expressing in demonstration before a congregation... Nevertheless... this is when I slowly, not viciously nor aggressively make my way to stand beside “my brother whom just queued his portion was running out”, like any other in which I’d certainly expect to had better be building the remaining portion to the point... (God has never EVER sent me on any assignment and left me half-cocked) However, hum is there some specific reason that this man all of a sudden doesn’t have the capability of looking at me and what as well as why has he started building some sort of defense of something as it appeared to be out of thin air.. did I miss something because we’re not out of agreement at all... his portion was ending and I had the other portion which was suppose to be beginning.. But it gets worse... Something kicked it up in to super-enhanced-mode... almost enchantment overload the minutes that was teaching the lesson... got all twisted up and rattled... It almost had me scared that He needed an exorcist...He calling for backup from the other minister present which is my age in which the pastor had just recently sat him down out of the pull-pit. The minister who was teaching the lesson was trying to explain to him why he needed him back up there in office...(mind you this is all taking place expeditiously during a “normal” Sunday School Lesson) I don’t know rather and instant ordainment took place within it all or what...He said something about it being because Bro (the church-guard-dog) had to stand guard...but... all of the congregation was staring at me as if they’re waiting on the crucifixion to take place and I come to the realization that Oh My I have reached the Worst Case Scenario...then the Deacon rang the Bell to close out.
